A WORD FROM OUR PASTOR

Dust, Ashes, and Grace

Genesis 3:14-21 ... ¹⁹ By the sweat of your brow you will eat your food until you return to the ground, since from it you were taken; for dust you are and to dust you will return." ²⁰ Adam named his wife Eve, because she would become the mother of all the living. ²¹ The LORD God made garments of skin for Adam and his wife and clothed them.

For many of you, I enter into familiar territory as the season of Lent begins. Maybe you are already choosing to fast from something in your life, maybe some luxury or diversion or other time taker, in order to try to be purposeful in drawing near to God. Others may be adding spiritual disciplines normal for the season, or possibly brand new.

For others, your faith background didn't highlight this season, or you never heard it talked about at all. The Genesis passage above is a portion of the consequences suffered by humanity as a result of sin, and there we see words that are "traditional" for the beginning of Lent. "...for dust you are and to dust you will return." Adam and Eve were going to be faced with their own mortality, due to their disobedience to God. Another way to put it is, Death entered humanity's story. I have known pastors who have borrowed a casket for a special service to remind those who attend that they are bound for death. Why do we emphasize this fragile nature of our existence, especially during this season? There are multiple reasons, but one Scripture that comes to mind helps clarify it.

Ephesians 2:8-9 ⁸ For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith-- and this not from yourselves, it is the gift of God-- ⁹ not by works, so that no one can boast.

Sometimes God's grace is so amazing that we can, quite by accident, think it is about us. What I mean is, we can feel our actions were the main part of the salvific work; which can make us feel like we earned salvation. Scripture is clear time and time again that the only reason we can be offered forgiveness/salvation/redemption; the only reason humanity has an option of regaining that eternal life is due to God's actions. If left to our own thoughts and actions, we will stand in the same condemnation as Adam and Eve. Speaking of which, even in the midst of the condemnation, we see God's Grace at work.

I included verse 21 for a specific reason, to say that as death came with humanity's sin, so also did death come as recompense for sin. It would be many generations before the Law of Moses would prescribe animal sacrifices to pay the penalty for the sins of the people each year...but notice that in the Garden of Eden, God CLOTHED Adam and Eve with "garments of skin." It is still true today that sin has consequences impacting us years after we commit it, but also, just as in Genesis, God proactively is already providing for redemption. Instead being clothed in animal skins, we are clothed in Righteousness. Instead of a yearly sacrifice, there was one sacrifice for All. Obviously, we cannot take credit for that sacrifice. Humanity is as bent toward destroying ourselves as we always have been. We are flawed, and we are we are fragile. From dust we came, and to dust we shall return. Many Christian traditions will take the palm branches used in the previous year's Palm Sunday worship, and will burn those dried branches for the ashes administered on Ash Wednesday, the beginning of Lent.

I invite you to set something aside this Lent. Maybe the thing set aside is a food, a luxury, or an activity. Maybe you set aside something as precious as time so you can invest in spiritual disciplines of prayer, study of Scripture, or even additional times of worship and praise. Allow this season of Lent to add to the daily reasons to thank God for this wondrous gift of grace through Jesus Christ. While contemplating my future ashes, I am,

In His Service and Yours,

Robbie

Board Study

The board reviewed the mission statement "To make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world" and also the vision statement scripture of John 17:20-21. The vehicle through which we are invited to live into this mission and vision is around the word ONE -Outreach, Nurture, and Engagement. The boundary principles will be studied next month.

Trustee Update

David Jay's fire chief responsibilities conflict with board meetings. The board approved Wendy Heisy to be the trustees representative to the board on the days that David Jay can not attend. The new HVAC unit for the Activity center has been installed along with a new programmable thermostat. The other HVAC units also to be replaced some time this year. Quotes are coming in to fill and seal the parking lot cracks. Other projects planned for 2020 include removing plaster above the sanctuary entrance, repairing the tower ceilings, painting the garage, building a platform inside the North basement door, and replacing upstairs windows in the parsonage. Also, it is a recommendation that a "Safety and Security Team" be established. The discussion on such team will continue next month.

Theda's Thoughts

Submitted by Theda Klepinger

As we near the change of seasons from Winter to Spring we are aware that life consists of many changes. Some changes are pleasant to experience, others are not. Improvements in the fields of medicine and technology are pleasant experiences. When a loved one dies the survivor's lives may not be pleasant. God is always with us and He grants us grace in all life's changes. We praise Him for His great faithfulness. Psalm 117:2and the faithfulness of the Lord endures forever.

Additional Opportunities

SAFETY and SECURITY TEAM Invitation

My name is David Jay. I am a member of the Trustees, as well as a Church Board member. I have been asked to form a Safety and Security Team for Hoffman. The primary purpose of this team is to be able to react to an emergency in the church and know where to go for necessary resources. The team will review a draft Emergency Preparedness and Business Continuity Plan document that I got from a seminar I attended last year and provide recommendations to the church board for policy approval. The Emergency Preparedness and Business Continuity Plan covers everything from weather emergencies, flood, power outage, fights, injuries, and pretty much anything else that may happen in the church. It is a resource that tells where the electric panels are, where the sump pumps are, where to assemble in case of an evacuation, important phone numbers, etc.

I am looking for anyone that is willing to help in an emergency. Send your Name, address, email, phone number, cell phone, and any current certifications (CPR, AED, etc.) to me at DJ4one@aol.com. Please let me know if you have any questions.

2020 PICTURE DIRECTORY

We are long overdue for an updated picture directory. We can use help in multiple areas, including persons willing to facilitate filling out the schedules (mostly this will be done on Sunday). Portraits will be scheduled on April 3rd and 4th (Friday and Saturday). Please let Pastor Robbie know if you can help with preparations for our next picture directory, whether in design or in logistics.

2020 MISSION TRIP

Pastor Robbie is again leading our Summer Mission Trip this year, and we are returning to Zanesville. We really left a good impression with the church we stayed at, and the ministries and people we served, so we are returning. The dates are from Sunday afternoon, June 21 to Friday afternoon, June 26th. We anticipate serving again in multiple areas of ministry. Please let Pastor Robbie know if interested.

"Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ and you will be saved." Acts 16:31

Thank you so much to everyone who came to the pasta luncheon, donated items for the silent auction or made all of the food! It was a lot of fun and a huge success for Bulldog Bags. We were able to raise $897 for Bulldog Bags.

THANK YOU!!!

Ignite Focusing on the Word

The grass withers and the flowers fall, but the word of the Lord endures forever. And this is the word that was preached to you.

1 Peter 1:24-25

Hello Church! Ignite is continuing to put its focus on studying the word of God. We wrapped up the "Essential Bible Passages" series by walking through the Roman's Road and sharing the pathway to salvation.

Ignite could really use some volunteers for Sunday nights. There would be NO prep time...I just need one more adult to be there to hang out with the youth and help me monitor everything. Don't know if you want to get on a regular rotation?...then just try it out once. My goal is to give current volunteers a break and rotate volunteers in the future.

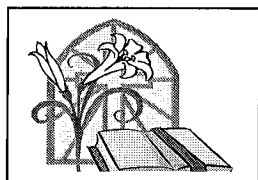

In February, we had a successful trip to Get Air with the Young Spirits. Thanks for all of your support!

The Voice of the Martyrs by Marijo Schlecht

Can it be March already? This month I thought I would bring you some good news stories on The Voice of the Martyrs. Let's begin in Sudan, where for thirty years there has been the persecution of Christians under former President Omar al-Bashir's regime. This has finally come to an end. Christians now have a glimmer of hope. With the removal of this leader who attempted to exterminate Christians, our brothers and sisters are seeing some of their freedoms returning. One such celebration is the return of Christmas as a National Holiday. This would have been unthinkable in previous years. Praise God, but we still need to pray for their safety as they attempt to share the Gospel and evangelize. The next report is on a young man from the Philippines. At age twenty one his life consisted of selling drugs, as he was a major drug dealer. One day as the police chased him he decided to hide in a bible school. He met a pastor who gave him a bible just before the police took him to jail. The young man read his bible and he confessed Jesus as his Lord and savior. God is now using him in the Philippines and in an Islamic school in Indonesia. His witness does come without danger, as he has been almost attacked twice, but he is willing to risk his life for the Lords calling. If you would like to hear more stories you can listen! Go to WWW.vomradio.net. Just a side note, there are thousands of people in other countries coming to know Jesus as Lord and savior. Places like Syria, Algeria, Pakistan, Iran, and many more. In most of these countries there are very harsh consequences so please keep our brothers and sisters in your prayers.

Until he comes, Marijo Schlecht
